[redacted] according to which the Bohnitzsch Kaserne had been occupied to capacity until 29 June but was vacated on that day by the troops. stationed there. [redacted]

25X1

5. [redacted] Comment. The two trains from Glauchau which probably carried details of the 22th Hv Tank SP Regt were reported for the first time. In early June, undetermined exercises took place in the Zeitz area. A unit of the regiment participated in these exercises. The train on 3 June to Neubukow probably carried three tanks and some trucks. Possibly the tanks were used for towing tank dummies as targets for firing practices with life ammunition by AAA units. Tank dummies had also been observed at the Wustrow firing range in 1952.

25X1A

6. [redacted] Comment. Rotation of units of the 6th Gds AAA Div (US) between their quartering area and the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. Some of the shipments had been reported previously.

25X1

7. [redacted] Comment. The trains probably carried units of the 39th Gds Mtz Rifle Div which participated in air landing exercises between Brandis and Erfurt-Bindersleben airfields which lasted until 11 July.

25X1

8. [redacted] Comment. A supply depot of the KVP is located in Schandau.

25X1

9. [redacted] Comment. Possibly troop shipments.

25X1

10. [redacted] Comment. Shipments of runway mats to the Merseburg and Schoenhauser Damm airfields probably for the construction of hardstands between the runways.

11. [redacted] 25X1

25X1

12. [redacted] Comment. As compared with previous months, the report indicates no changes in the volume of Soviet supply traffic.
